TriTek Sponsors IOD Conference 2007

TriTek is a Gold Sponsor of the 2007 IBM Information on Demand Conference

BOSTON, MA – TriTek Solutions, a leading provider of customized business process and enterprise content management solutions, has announced its gold-level sponsorship of the 2007 IBM Information on Demand conference in Las Vegas. While at the conference, TriTek will offer demonstrations of its award-winning software, Trans@ction eXpress and CapturePlus. Company representatives will meet with attendees to provide demos and discuss potential solutions and concerns at booth G4 in the EXPO Solution Center.

In addition, TriTek's co-founders Jack Finnegan and Peter Gretz will host a seminar on enterprise content management solutions specific to the property and casualty claims segment of the insurance industry. The session seeks to address challenges typically faced by claims managers by highlighting the benefits of ECM technologies and customizable solution templates in an online environment. Attendees will also view a product demonstration of Trans@ction eXpress for P&C Claims, a transaction processing application that increases operational efficiencies by streamlining P&C claims evaluation and adjudication processes. For registered attendees that are interested in TriTek's claims seminar, the session ID is BNS-2429A and the seminar is listed under the Insurance section of the Business Leadership track.
